

GRANTS FOR INSTRUCTION

ANNOUNCING AN OPPORTUNITY FOR CLASSROOM FUNDING FROM DALTON EDUCATION FOUNDATION

Many Grants available through four Grant categories for 2022-2023

Tom Jones Grants for EXCELLENCE

Grants for ideas to take students to that next level in their engagement and understandings

Rowena Martin INNOVATIVE TEACHING Grants

Grants to provide the opportunity for unique and creative ideas for instruction and student engagement

DPS Payroll Deduction TEACHER'S WISH LIST

To help you purchase things you really need in your classroom
(Given by DPS employees)

Janice Meadows/Grant for U.S. History

Grants designated to providing opportunities for teachers to make
U.S. History "come alive" for students.

Please send applications to: Dalton Education Foundation
P.O. Box 1408
Dalton, GA 30722-1408
or

You may e-mail the application to:
don.amonett@dalton.k12.ga.us or def@dalton.k12.ga.us

DEADLINE FOR SUBMITTING APPLICATIONS FOR GRANTS:

Friday, February 25, 2022 4:30 PM

GRANTS FOR INSTRUCTION

BE SPECIFIC:

- * If you need things to accomplish your idea, tell us exactly what you have in mind and how it will help you reach your goal:
 - * What kind of materials?
 - * What series of literature?
 - * What destination(s)?
 - * What kind of equipment?

PREPARE A REALISTIC BUDGET FOR YOUR IDEA

- * Do your homework on proposal.
- * Get the best estimates you can on what ideas will cost.
- * Provide clarity of costs.
- * Be sure your idea is not something:
 - * The Board of Education will fund.
 - * Your school budget covers.
 - * Covered by professional learning.

SELECT WHICH GRANT FOR WHICH YOU WILL APPLY

Pay attention to the purpose of each grant and make sure that your application fits that purpose:

- * Tom Jones Grants for EXCELLENCE
Taking students to the next level
- * Rowena Martin INNOVATIVE TEACHING
Unique and creative ideas
- * DPS Payroll Deduction WISH LIST
Things you really need in class
- * Janice Meadows Grant for U.S. History
Make U.S. History “come alive”

HINTS FOR APPLYING

FOCUS ON CHILDREN AND YOUTH

- * How will your ideas engage students with interesting, challenging and satisfying work?
- * It is not necessary to serve a large number of children to have a good proposal.
- * It helps to show what group(s) may benefit

GIVE YOUR PROJECT A SHORT, EASY- TO-IDENTIFY TITLE

A title that quickly summarizes your idea helps the Selection Committee. It also helps focus on the purpose of your project.

NAME SOMEONE WE CAN CONTACT FOR INFORMATION ABOUT YOUR PROPOSAL

DEF Selection Committees may need to contact people for more information in the midst of a meeting. Help them reach you!

DON'T FORGET:

DEADLINE FOR SUBMITTING APPLICATIONS

Friday, February 25, 2022 4:30 PM

GRANTS FOR INSTRUCTION

APPLICATION

(Administered by the Dalton Education Foundation, Inc.)

NOTE: You may answer these questions on a separate page and avoid “cutting and pasting” information.

Please do not exceed a total of three pages to provide all information.

For which grant category are you applying?

- ☐ Tom Jones Grants for EXCELLENCE
- ☐ Rowena Martin INNOVATIVE TEACHING Grants
- ☐ DPS Payroll Deduction TEACHER’S WISH LIST
- ☐ Janice Meadows Grants for U.S. History

Name of Proposal: _____ Funds Needed: _____

School(s): _____ Contact Person(s): _____

Teacher(s) Involved: _____

Proposal Time Line: From _____ TO _____ (You will have until April 21, 2023 to expend the grant funds)

Has your principal approved this Proposal? ☐ Yes ☐ No

1. What do you need to accomplish your innovative, engaging teaching plan?
2. How will this/these needed item(s) help?
3. Do you understand that any materials, equipment, supplies or other items purchased through this grant become the property of the Dalton Public Schools and are not to be moved from your school(s) should you leave the employ of Dalton Public Schools?
_____ YES _____ Your initials
4. If this application is for the Tom Jones Grants for EXCELLENCE or the Rowena Martin INNOVATIVE TEACHING Grants, what sets this idea/plan apart from other plans/ideas?
5. Attach budget to this sheet.

Return application to: DEF at Central Office through Inter-Office mail or e-mail to don.amonett@dalton.k12.ga.us or def@dalton.k12.ga.us

Deadline: Friday, February 25, 2022 4:30 PM